Shri Prashant Mishra, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sanjay K. Agrawal, Deputy Advocate General for the State / respondents.

Shri Agrawal takes notice on behalf of the respondents.

The counsel for the petitioner to supply copy of the petition to the counsel for the respondents.

Shri Agrawal prays for two week's time to file the return.

Two week's time is granted.

Heard on I.A. No. 5359/2003.

I have heard both the counsel.

This is a matter in which the petitioner was working as a Head Clerk in the Police Department and he has retired on 31-5-2003. The main contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that he is not being allowed to retain the house after the retirement as per the Rules, whereas on the other hand, Mr. Agrawal representing the respondents ~~states~~ stated that there is a paucity of the government accommodation and on account of that it is difficult for the State Administration to accommodate all the serving government employees and if the petitioner is allowed to continue for a longer period in the government accommodation then other serving government employees will not be able to get the accommodation and thereby their work performance will be affected.

	Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and having regard to the arguments advanced by both the counsel, I am of the opinion that if the petitioner is allowed to stay in the house for three months that will meet the ends of the justice. It is, therefore, directed that the petitioner may be allowed to continue in the house till the end of August, 2003. The petition is disposed of accordingly. In view of this order, M.(W.)P. No. 1622/2003 also stands disposed of. Sd/- L.C. Bhadoo Judge
